

DOING GOD'S WORK

Once God has found that we do keep our promises, or that we repent quickly if we have slipped up when asked to undertake a work, God will give us more and more to do.

The work may not, probably will not, be always to our liking; but let us become used to praying: 'Not my will, but yours, Lord.' It's wonderful how a prayer like that can get the work done!