Mark 6 14-29

Collect the sixth Sunday after Trinity

Merciful God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding: pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Thought for the Week Jesus' Example

At the start of his ministry, Jesus spent some time in the wilderness, overcoming Satan and preparing for the work ahead. Then he returned to civilization, and put theory into practice.

Thinking about our work in order to do it, is wise, thinking about it when we should be doing it, is time wasting.

So, we feel like writing a note of encouragement to a Christian in Peru or China, who has been imprisoned for his faith? Let's do it. We feel like sharing a vision for a Bible study group at the Church Council meeting? Let's do it. We feel like telephoning or visiting the lady in the parish who came out of hospital yesterday? Let's do it.
