

By Faith, We Can Rejoice

We must always remember that with God, nothing is impossible. He made us. He knows us. He recognizes to the 'nth degree, our spiritual potential. And let's never deceive ourselves we know it.

Let us give God our best and open our hearts to be turned upside-down by him, as he goes to work on the job of lighting us up from the inside out, so that we can in turn do our best for our part of the Church.
