

A Post Easter Thought

Two thousand years after the resurrection, God must have a pretty fair idea of how we respond to his workings. After all, the women's fear (Mark 16.8) did not stop God getting the resurrection news broadcast. He will always get his way.

If God has to call a person and send him or her halfway round the world, to win one soul, he will do it. Let us pray, this Easter, that God will continue to give us grace to do what he is telling us to do.

Remember Jesus is risen, Alleluia! He is risen indeed, for US!
