

Sunday 22nd November @ 10am

Readings

Ezekiel 34 11-16, 20-24

Ephesians 1 15-end

Matthew 25 31-end

Collect for Christ the King

Eternal Father, whose Son Jesus Christ ascended to the throne of heaven that he might rule over all things as Lord and King: keep the Church in the unity of the Spirit and in the bond of peace, and bring the whole created order to worship at his feet; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Thought for the Week Our Timetables

Today, let us reflect that possibly our so important timetables don't mean so much to God? He doesn't work to rule. Nor does he wait around indefinitely for us, until we have a minute to spare for him. An opportunity missed may not return.

The time we spend on others is never wasted in God's sight. It may seem to run counter to our priorities, but if we're ever wondering which of two (or more) ways to take, let's ask the question which 'one can I take Jesus into?'